NO HELP BUT LAW.

The Cripple Creek Trouble is Beyond Arbitration,
And the Grand Jury Will Take a Hand.

IF THE WORST COMES

The Railway Men Will Help the Miners Out.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Col., June 1.—The authorities have notified the mine owners who have property at Cripple Creek that the trouble in that district has gone entirely beyond the question of wages or of arbitration of wages. It is now, they state, entirely one putting of down the lawlessness and insurrection existing in the district, and this they propose to make an effort to do. For this purpose a special session of the grand jury has been called and the Cripple Creek cases will at once be taken up. People who live and do business in Cripple Creek are coming to Colorado Springs in large numbers, as they state they no longer dare remain at their homes. The majority have been ordered to leave by the striking miners. They tell stories of outrageous treatment and of innumerable threats by the strikers.

New complications are threatened, as for the past twenty-four hours representatives of the railway conductors, engineers and firemen have been in consultation with the strikers at Altman. It is thought the trainmen may refuse to run trains carrying arms, ammunition and reinforcements to the deputies. Such a step would immeasurably strengthen the strikers, as the work of massing deputies would be slow and difficult.

The miners have great faith in Governor Waite being able to adjust the matter with the mine owners so that work can start up on all idle properties by the first of the week at the latest. They are greatly put out that his excellency has been delayed in his journey to Colorado Springs by washouts. The governor and his party are weather bound near McCourt camp. The governor is greatly disappointed, as he fears the deputies will make an advance.

LEAVENWORTH STIRRED UP.

Another Mass Meeting Held to Drive Out the Missouri Agitators.
LEAVENWORTH, Kan., June 1.—The citizens of Leavenworth are at last aroused to action, and at a public meeting held yesterday afternoon resolved to protect every miner anxious to remain at work, and drive from the city all foreign emissaries or agents who attempt to interfere with them. This is the result of the action of the Missouri strikers, under the leadership of Editor McGregor of the Miner's Echo, who yesterday morning marched in a body, headed by the Lexington band, to the lines of the North Leavenworth shaft property to prevent the men from going to work. While no threats were made, many of the miners feared injury and returned to their homes.

To take the necessary steps for organization, a meeting of all good citizens was called at the council chamber. It was very largely attended. Judge L. M. Hacker was the chairman and D. R. Anthony, jr., secretary. A committee from the North shaft miners, representing 300 men, was present and asked the people to protect them as they were anxious to work and had nothing in common with the outside strikers.

By resolution it was agreed to give protection to every miner who desired to work. Speeches were made by a number of citizens and all were unanimous in expression of making use of any lawful measure to give security to every citizen in his desire to pursue a peaceful vocation. It was resolved that all citizens should go at an early hour in the morning to the coal shaft and prevent home miners from being intimidated.

STRIKERS ON THE MARCH.

Two Hundred Miners From Camden

Tramp on to Hamilton.
KINGSTON, Mo., June 1.—A body of a little more than 200 striking coal miners from the Camden and Richmond mines in Ray county arrived here yesterday, camped, cooked and ate their supper at Log creek, just within the southern limits of the city. They are en route to the Tom Creek coal mines, near Hamilton, ten miles north from here, to try to get the miners at work there to quit work and join them in the strike.

EDITOR BACKED DOWN.

Owens, Breckinridge's Opponent, the Hero of a Sensational Proceeding.
LEXINGTON, Ky., June 1.—A most sensational and exciting scene took place in the editorial room of Charles L. Moore, editor of the Blue Grass Blade. There were present W. C. Owens, candidate for congress against Breckinridge, G. C. Moore, General W. H. Gentry and J. Walter Lenke, a friend of Mr. Owens, and a correspondent of the Post.

Owens said to Moore: "I have come to see you about the lying, scurrilous letter which I understood you have received from Jettis Station, postmarked Georgetown, in which my character is attacked in a most shameful manner. You say you believe the letter to be a forgery, and yet you will print it in the Blade. I have this say, and I have tried to do right, but if you publish that letter we will be so no longer, and you must stand the consequences."

"If published, it will reflect seriously on ladies of Frankfort, and will besides be sent to my mother and sisters. That I cannot and will not stand. What I have to say to you is that I ask no favor of you, do not want you to defend me, and will not have that letter published or scattered broadcast when I have already denounced everything in it, and any one who circulates it is a liar and a scoundrel."

Moore began to explain that he was doing this to defend Owens, but Owens shut him off, saying that he did not want to be defended by Moore. Then Moore asked to be allowed to read the letter, which he did. The letter was dated Jettis, Ky., May 27. Moore had headed it, "How Bill Owens is Everlastingly Ruined." The letter makes grave charges against Owens of immorality and gambling, and is signed by L. Crutcher. The postmark of the letter is Georgetown, and the postmaster of that place has just come in to say that the postmark stamp is a forgery.

Moore then backed down and said if Owens wished it he would not publish the letter. To this Owens replied that he would say nothing but that the letter had better not be published. Moore then agreed not to print it.

PACIFIC RAILWAY DEBT.

House Committee Order a Bill Drafted Providing for Settlement.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—The committee on Pacific railroads has ordered a bill drafted for its further consideration, embodying the following provisions in regard to the Union Pacific railroad: The time of agreement between the government and the railroad company for settlement must be accompanied by an agreement on the part of the company to cancel the first mortgage within the limit, and no extension longer than fifty years should be considered.

It was further agreed that the company must pay 3 per cent interest instead of 2, as provided in all other bills under consideration. If this bill is reported there will be a minority report still further curtailing the time in which the railroad must meet its obligations.

The bill for an additional judge for the Northern district of Illinois passed, after which the bill to repeal the tax on state bank circulation was taken up. Mr. Black of Georgia resuming his speech in favor of repeal.

A DARING OUTRAGE.

A St. Louis Woman, After Being Assaulted Shoots a Brute Down.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 1.—A daring outrage was perpetrated yesterday at the home of Silas Johnson. Two men called at the house. Mrs. Flora Johnson, wife of Silas, opened the door, and the men forced their way into the house and, seizing the woman, repeatedly assaulted her. As they were about to leave, Mrs. Johnson jumped to her feet and seizing a shotgun, fired. The discharge took effect in one of the men's arm and body, causing dangerous wounds. The police caught the men, whose names are Mike Conney and John Weitzel.

QUESTION CARLISLE.

Investigation Committee Has Him On the Stand.

He Contradicts the Testimony of Correspondent Edwards.

MILLS REFUSED IT.

Mr. Carlisle's Letter of Introduction Wasn't Received.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—Senator McPherson was before the senatorial committee to investigate the alleged interference of the sugar trust with congress and the executive departments. He reiterated the statement he recently made on the floor of the senate that when it became apparent that sugar was to be the subject of legislation he instructed his broker to cease all dealings in sugar stock in his name.

The committee also examined Senators Harris and Mills and concluded the sitting for the day with the testimony of Secretary Carlisle, who denied explicitly all charges made in Mr. Edwards' letter, except one. This one was the assertion that while conferring with the committee he, Carlisle, on one occasion, at the suggestion of the members of the committee, and using their figures, put a sugar schedule into shape, as he did other paragraphs in the bill. This, the secretary said, he had done. He declared he had not made such a visit as he was represented as making to the committee to demand the sugar interest be cared for in the tariff bill because of the Democratic party's obligation to the sugar trust.

The examination of Senator Harris and Mills completed the inquiry among members of the finance committee and senators who assisted in the preparation of the bill. Both senators denied any knowledge of the sugar trust in connection with legislation, and also denied that Mr. Carlisle had demanded protection for sugar.

UNCLE SAM'S FINANCES.

The Gold Reserve Down to a Little in Excess of $77,000,000.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—The cash balance in the treasury at the close of business yesterday was $119,062,893, of which $70,280,015 was gold reserve. Advances from New York say about $1,400,000 in gold was engaged for shipment to-day, which, with Wednesday's engagement of $800,000 will leave the gold reserve on June 1 but little in excess of $77,000,000. The cash balance will also be reduced by interest and other payments due to less than $117,000,000. This will be a reduction of the available cash balance during May of about $8,000,000.

COL. MOORE'S CASE.

It Will Be Difficult to Obtain a Majority Report for Him.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—Colonel H. L. Moore of Lawrence, who is contesting Funston's seat in congress, is having no end of trouble. Several of the Democrats have kicked clear out of harness and his friends on the committee fear that it will be difficult to obtain a majority report. Paynter of Kentucky, has espoused Funston's side of the controversy, and several of the other Democrats are lukewarm in Moore's support. This is especially true of Democrats who have Populists to fear in their districts and look with disfavor on the fusion deal.

Another effort will be made to get a favorable report on Colonel Moore's case Tuesday. Before it can be done, however, it will be necessary to satisfy the opposition to Moore in the Democratic ranks.

Trial of the Warship Columbia.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—The official report of the naval board, which conducted the recent trial of the Columbia, was submitted to Acting Secretary McAdoo yesterday. Certain small defects always to be looked for in a new ship were found, but all of them, it is said, admit of easy correction, and on the whole the report makes it evident that the Columbia is one of the finest vessels afloat.
